Dear Mrs. Struble:-

I beg pardon! That was the fault of a Secretary now not here -- for I remember perfectly your sending the check at the time.

I return it now, with the receipt and many thanks.

I trust you have frequent good news from lovely little Doris June. Please give her my love when you write.

Sincerely yours,

MRS. M. A. STRUBLE

Dear Mrs. Struble:

Well! And so our little Doris June has gone and married! That shows what happens to old fellows when they go off sick for a year or so and lose the hang of the world altogether.

You surely must miss her - and now that I'm back here, I shall miss her, too. I hope she and her husband will find their way back to California. Please give her my love and all good wishes when you write her.

I have not "fully recovered," but I'm much better than I was, and able to work with moderation - and very happy at last to be able to bring out these cherished Songs. The first edition of a thousand is practically all subscribed, and I shall no doubt find it necessary to issue a second edition before the first is distributed.

With high regard and best wishes,

Always your Friend,

CFL/R

Dear Dr. Summis: —

Enclosed find an order for a copy of your Spanish Songs.
You are probably not aware that Doris June is married ^{and} now living in Chicago. You were away at the time I imagine ^{and} so did not receive the card we sent to you.
We do certainly miss her here at home ^{and} are hoping that in a year or so, they will see a way to locate in California.

And sure she will be delighted to have one of your books.

You can either mail it direct to her at 7736 Eastlake Terrace
Chicago, Ill

or deliver it to me & I will settle for the amount.

Hope you have fully recovered from your recent illness.

With kindest regards from Mr Struble ^{and} myself

Sincerely

Sarah Struble
